DiscussIT Topic 6: Where is our country headed?

Discuss IT Topic: Over the last week, our country has had growing concerns on immigration bans, border safety, and executive orders that remind us of issues that have been plaguing our country for years. Now that Trump has been elected President, there has been people threatening to blow up the White House, human right protests, and a plethora of other sensitive subject matters that are very compelling to individual groups of people. Why have these issues come up now as we head into a time in which it seems no one is going to be happy with the outcomes? Will this create a split in this country and place citizens against one another when it comes to their views? In your opinion, what other topics are at the forefront of concern? Exaplin.

This issue comes up now because not everyone agrees with trumps ideas even though it can be to our advantage. Yes, I believe it will cause a split in our country because those who are protesting and arguing are causing a lot of damage to our country and trump will not put up with it and they will essentially have to leave. Another thing I worry about is our economy and haw so much damage is being made to our surrounding which will probably end up coming out in our taxes. And our environment is going to be even worse than is is now because the rioters will dirty our streets causing a bigger Ozone hole.
